CDTV ACCESSORIES

CD1200 TRACKBALL CONTROLLER: The Trackball Controller increases speed and control for fast interactive multimedia titles. The trackball is mounted in a weighted base and has dual joystick connectors. Plug in your favorite joystick and use it to operate your CDTV player. Commodore's Trackball Controller operates by either an infrared remote control or by the plug-in cable provided.

CD1300 VIDEO GENLOCK CARD: The CDTV Genlock Card lets you combine CDTV visuals with video from a videocamera, videotape or live television, and record the combined signal to a VCR. The Genlock mode is switchable between Video-Only, Combined (CDTV + video) or CDTV-Only, and can be controlled by the standard CDTV remote control. Commodore's Genlock gives you instant control for many home and industrial video uses.

CD1400 CD CADDIES: Set of 2 black caddies to hold and protect CDTV Multimedia, CD-ROM and audio CD titles.

CD1401/5 PERSONAL MEMORY CARD. The CDTV Personal Memory Card is a convenient way to save information for later use. Select CDTV titles make use of the Personal Memory Card for saving a position (e.g. adventure games), pictures (e.g. painting programs), text (e.g. reference) and various other functions. 64K (CD1401) and 256K (CD1405) capacities.

CD1500 CDTV PROFESSIONAL BUNDLE: Expands your CDTV player into an Amiga computer. Bundle includes --

- o Black wired keyboard with beige keys
- o Black 3.5" disk drive
- o Black WIRELESS mouse
- o Amiga Appetizer software - - (all on one disk)
  - Write: word processing program
  - Paint: high speed brush operations with moveable toolbox
  - Music: full notation editor and music player
  - Tile: unscramble pictures before time runs out
